

Vintage Persian Pictorial Narrative Rug no. 10956

Description

The central field depicts Joseph presented before Pharaoh and Zuleikha in Egypt, surrounded by guards, servants, and mystical serpents. The side and top panel vignettes depict key narrative episodes from the Quranic/Biblical story of Joseph—including his brothers throwing him into the pit/well, his sale into slavery, and scenes of ancient Egyptian lore. Design Motifs: Hieroglyphic-inspired border bands, Pharaonic seated figures, sphinxes, winged guardians, and classic Egyptian revival iconographies blended with traditional Persian miniature painting styles. Materials & Construction: Hand-knotted fine wool pile (often with silk highlights) on a cotton or silk foundation, featuring a high knot density suited for detailed figurative artwork.
